Shell notes

1. Soft black pepper wafer cracker notes
  - a. Feeling just touch of the kava from tasting the needing bowl
  - b. Lingering taste soft numbing with a weak unripe capsicum or kawakawa bitterness
2. As above but losing the cracker taste into just unripe capsicum kawakawa spicy bitterness
  - a. Same as above Soft rolling numbing Vibes
  - b. Just the slightest hint of green szechuan peppercorn
  - c. Soft breeze of kava vibes
3. As above lost cracker vibes, now just green capsicum vibes with light black pepper vibe
  - a. Kind of drifted away from black pepper notes towards black cardamom taste minus the smoke taste
  - b. Mouth has the vibe of i have had a massive breath mint and I can feel all the air
4. Just nice unripe green mellow spicy vibes
  - a. Getting touch harder to write notes, nice chill vibes
  - b. Good Vibes
5. Just good unripe green vibes
  - a. Very soft marsh'mellow with fair bit of good soft gentle kava vibes
  - b. Just bitter not astringent
6. Words words words
  - a. Feel this kava in your throat alot
  - b. Soft rolling kava buzz quite enjoyable very relaxable vibes
7. Words words words celery vibes
  - a. If green was spicy and getting more soft numbing
  - b. What a vibe
8. serving a shell is getting hard, delicious, very awake yet mushy marsh'mellow vibes. Love spicy celery vibes
9. Final shell, damn words words words, even getting shel down was a tad hard to compute wonderful session final taste fruity bitter celery leaves, deep warm throat feel with lovely breath mint vibe where you can feel all the air
